Walter Starkie will give two informal lectures at The Cleveland Museum of Art this weekend. The first will be on SPAIN'S GOLDEN AGE, 1600-1680, and will be given on Friday January 6 at 8:15 p.m. In his second lecture on Sunday January 8 at 3:30 p.m. he will discuss THE AGE OF GOYA, 1746-1818.

Starkie began his career as a wandering Gypsy fiddler and was for twenty years a director of the Abbey Theatre in Dublin. From 1940-1955 he directed The British Institute in Madrid, and has served as visiting professor in several American Universities and the University of Upsala in Sweden. He is currently lecturing at Purdue University.

Both lectures are open free to the public and will be held in the auditorium of the Museum.
